
ling Place, Brooklyn, died of apoplexy Monday at his home. Colonel Jacobson was president of Arthur T. Jacobson & Sons, lumber merchants, with offices at 189 Bridge Street, Brooklyn, and yards on Park Avenue, Brooklyn. Before entering the lumber business he was a hat manufacturer. He was a member of the Brooklyn Club, the Board of Aldermen of the Brooklyn Club, the Board of Commerce and the Old Guard of Manhattan.

OBITUARY NOTES

MICHAEL F. BARRETT, thirty-nine, a engineer attached to Engine Company 21 of New York City, died Monday at his home, 80 Hancock Street.

MARTIN LOEW, eighty, a retired man manufacturing clothing, died Monday at his home, 229 Tesla Place, Glendale, L. I. The funeral will be held Thursday from his home.

HELEN CUMBERLAND, fifteen, daughter of the late Mrs. Brown for fifty-two years, died yesterday morning at his home, 1109 Putnam Avenue, Brooklyn. He is survived by four sons, a daughter, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Monday at the Greenpoint Hospital, after an illness of one week. She was a graduate of St. Cecilia's School, and before her illness a pupil in the St. Nicholas High School. She was an active member of the Angels' Sodality attached to St. Cecilia's Church.

JAMES C. SHORT, fifty-five, an old-time vaudeville actor, died Monday at his home, 26 Berkeley Place, Brooklyn. He was a cornet player in the Hyde & Behun Theatre orchestra. He was a member.

28 weeks	10 900 000 "
----------------	--------------

Dr. H. A. Garheld, United States Fuel Ad- NOW so as to be sure of having it next winter

Commercial Bank Building, Washington, D. C.

MAIN OFFICE, Broadway & 56th St., N. Y.
Nassau St., nr. Fulton, 90 Chambers St., nr. Broadway
NEWARK—Broad or Market St.

HAHN.—On Sunday, June 29, 1919, An-
Dorothy, only beloved daughter of George
H. and Etta Pleaso Hahn of 228 Len-Road, Flatbush, in her 15th year, after brief illness. Interment private. Pleas-

Established 1908
557 Lexington Avenue
Tel. Morning-
side 5831. JOHN W. MC CABE UNDERTAKER
265-265 W. 118th

Low Prices Sand for Our Catalog HODGES.—On Sunday, June 23, 1912, Minnie M. Hodges (nee Dyer), wife of the